

- | | | |
|--------------------|---------------------|--------------------|
| 266. Beautiful | 275. Cardinal | 286. Moment |
| 267. Replete | 276. Bellicose | 287. Apex |
| 268. Avarice | 277. Corroborate | 288. Disparate |
| 269. Fleece | 278. Unconscionable | 289. Lassitude |
| 270. Pittance | 279. Scrupulous | 290. Extenuating |
| 271. Cadaverous | 280. Melee | 291. Virago |
| 272. Gaunt | 281. Contrite | 292. Exorant |
| 273. Emaciated | 282. Chauvinist | 293. Badger |
| 274. Scintillating | 283. Heyday | 294. Sanctimonious |
| | 284. Animosity | 295. Pious |
| | 285. Immaterial | 296. Exhort |
| | | 297. Check |

(10)

266. blissfully happy 267. completely stocked or furnished with something
268. greed 269. to deceive 270. a small amount (of money) 271, 272, 273. abnormally thin or weak 274. brilliant & lively 275. fundamental; of primary importance 276. inclined to fight 277. to confirm or lend support to (an idea or claim) 278. unreasonable 279. extremely diligent & attentive to details; avoid doing wrong. 280. a wild, confusing fight or struggle 281. to be remorseful 282. a person who believes in the superiority of their group. 283. pinnacle of time period or career.
284. intense hostility 285. not relevant 286. significant & important value
287. the highest point 288. two fundamentally different things. 289. extreme tiredness 290. make less guilty or more forgivable 291. an ill-tempered, violent woman 292. to be wandering; not sticking to a path 293. pestering 294. be ~~haughty~~ pious 295. devoutly religious; make a hypocritical display of virtue 296. encourage 297. to limit; the condition of being held back or limited.