

- |                 |                    |                 |
|-----------------|--------------------|-----------------|
| 91. Benign      | 101. Inexorable    | 111. Tender     |
| 92. Aesthetic   | 102. Mauleish      | 112. Demure (A) |
| 93. Germane     | 103. Acme          | 113. Diabolical |
| 94. Apathetic   | 104. Penuse        | 114. Candid     |
| 95. Frivolous   | 105. Remin         | 115. Triade     |
| 96. Deferential | 106. Macabre       | 116. Sereed     |
| 97. Superfluous | 107. Telling       | 117. Inundate   |
| 98. Conspicuous | 108. Thoroughgoing | 118. Embroided  |
| 99. Culpability | 109. Vindictive    | 119. Censor     |
| 100. Bucolic    | 110. Demean        | 120. Indignant  |

91. kind; not dangerous to health 92. concerned with appreciation of beauty.
93. relevant & appropriate 94. marked by lack of interest 95. not serious.
96. showing respect 97. more than needed; serving no purpose 98. not attempting to be subtle 99. state of guilt 100. relating to the pleasant aspects of the country. 101. impossible to prevent 102. disgustingly, overly sentimental 103. highest point of achievement 104. read very carefully 105. to be negligent in one's duty 106. gruesome; suggesting the horror of death & decay 107. significant & revealing of another factor 108. very thorough 109. to have a strong desire for revenge 110. to insult 111. to formally offer something 112. to be modest, calm, shy 113. to be extremely evil 114. to be honest & straightforward 115. angry speech 116. an abusive, tedious rant 117. to flood/overflow 118. to be involved in an argument 119. (person who) remove something objectionable 120. feeling anger over a perceived injustice.